

RICHLAND PUBLIC HEALTH

Chief Plumbing Inspector

Environmental Health Division | Exempt (MSC)

Schedule:

Mon–Thurs 7:00 AM–3:00 PM | Fri 7:00 AM–3:30 PM

Occasional early mornings, evenings, weekends, or holidays as needed.

Position Overview

Leads and manages the Plumbing Unit to ensure compliance with the Ohio Plumbing Code and applicable regulations. Oversees inspections, contractor registration, code enforcement, and staff supervision to protect public health.

Essential Duties

- Review plans and conduct plumbing inspections
 - Issue permits and register contractors
 - Enforce plumbing codes and regulations
 - Supervise, train, and evaluate staff
 - Maintain documentation and reports
 - Respond to complaints and provide technical guidance
 - Support quality improvement and emergency response activities
-

Minimum Qualifications

- 15+ years' experience in commercial plumbing design, construction, and/or inspection
 - Extensive knowledge of Ohio Plumbing Code
 - Required certifications: Ohio Dept. of Commerce Plumbing Inspector; Board of Building Standards Plumbing Inspector; Residential & Non-Residential NITC Medical Gas Inspector; ASSE 6020
 - Supervisory experience
 - Ability to read blueprints
 - Valid Ohio Driver's License and insurance
 - Ability to lift up to 35 lbs.
-

Benefits

Health, Dental & Vision Insurance • OPERS • Paid Leave • 12 Paid Holidays • Flexible Spending
• Deferred Compensation • Professional Development • May qualify for Public Service Loan Forgiveness

Apply

Complete an Employment Application at: www.richlandhealth.org → CAREERS

Submit to:
Richland Public Health
555 Lexington Ave., Mansfield, OH 44907
Attn: Director of Human Resources

Open Until Filled

Equal Opportunity Employer